Current Awareness Bulletin: Social Work  March 2019

To be added to the circulation list for this bulletin please email: hazel.neale@healthcarelibrary.qub.ac.uk

You must be a current Library member to read the articles online.

To read an article, Click on the article title & login with your username & password. The article record should open – follow the online links- either PDF, connect or publisher.

SCIE  Strengths-based approach: practice framework and practice handbook (The framework and handbook support social workers and social care professionals in applying a strengths-based approach to their work with adults)

Self-care behaviours and their relationship with Satisfaction and Compassion Fatigue levels among social workers

The role of spousal support for dietary adherence among type 2 diabetes patients: a narrative review

Positive effects of art therapy on depression and self-esteem of older adults in nursing homes

What does effectiveness mean?: A qualitative assessment of two child protection systems

Emotional reactivity, trauma-related distress, and suicidal ideation among adolescent inpatient survivors of sexual abuse

Therapeutic interventions with child survivors of sibling sexual abuse: The professionals' perspective

Are sexual minority youth overrepresented in foster care, child welfare, and out-of-home placement? Findings from nationally representative data

Towards an ecological understanding of readiness to engage with interventions for children exposed to domestic violence and abuse: Systematic review and qualitative synthesis of perspectives of children, parents and practitioners

Stimulating interdisciplinary collaboration among youth social workers: A scoping review

Non-Pharmacological interventions for managing wandering in the community: A narrative review of the evidence base

Zero-hour contracts and stress in UK domiciliary care workers

You never walk alone: An exploratory study of the needs and burden of an informal care group

A case study exploring the effectiveness of an innovative “5Q Care Test” to determine whether patients with complex needs require health or social care

Family education and support for families at psychosocial risk in Europe: Evidence from a survey of international experts

Arts on prescription for community-dwelling older people with a range of health and wellness needs

Facilitators and barriers to family engagement and retention of young children in mental health care: A qualitative study of caregivers’ perspectives

Factors preventing the social reintegration of homeless persons: A comparison between residents of long-stay hostels and individuals living on the street

Using psychodynamic interventions to engage in trauma-informed practice

Interpersonal justice: the importance of relationships for child and family social workers

Undergraduate students' perception of their own strengths and weaknesses as potential social workers

Disclaimer: The Healthcare Library cannot guarantee the correctness or completeness of the information in this bulletin. The information is subject to change and we cannot guarantee it will remain up-to-date. It is your responsibility to check the accuracy and validity of the information. This bulletin is the property of the Medical & HSC library. Please credit us if re-using or distributing content from it.

Sources scanned: SCIE checked 15.2.19; Social work in health care VOL 58:3 ;Child abuse & neglect 89 ;Health & Social Care in the Community 27:2 ; Social work in mental health 17:2; J Social Work Practice 33:1